

State Team Code of Conduct

Students on the California National Team must adhere to the following guidelines or risk forfeiting their position on the team. The CSPEEF Board reserves the right to release a National Team member for conduct and actions, including but not limited to the following:

- Students shall refrain from unsportsmanlike conduct. This includes, but is not limited to, verbal or written remarks about fellow Mathletes, coaches, volunteers, and staff.
- Students shall conduct themselves in a manner recognizing that they are the responsibility of and remain under direct supervision of their coaches during duration the National MATHCOUNTS Competition.
- The use of illegal substances of any type by any student will not be permitted.
- Students must plan to attend all group activities. Group activities during the competition weekend have been carefully planned for the enjoyment and benefit of the students.
- Students shall not engage in any conduct or action that reflects adversely on themselves, their schools, their teachers, their parents, the California Society of Professional Engineers and its members or the MATHCOUNTS Program.
